HEY, HI, HELLO!

WELCOME TO THE DESTINATION WEDDING CO

I'm Kate, I plan relaxed weddings for romantic couples across Europe.

I'm an EU based planner who wears her heart on her sleeve.
Living & working on the road, you'll see me around the globe all year round.

Guiding my couples with compassion, knowledge, experience & joy in naturally beautiful destinations to create a wedding that is truly their own.

With British roots & a traveller's heart, I'm the best of both worlds when it comes to easy communication & curating the best team for you in a destination that feels like home.

I combine my supportive nature, rigorous hospitality
& beaming pride in everything I do.

That's the heart of The Destination Wedding Co.

PORTFOLIO
COUPLES & CONNECTION

"The team Kate brought to us, I have literally no words for. We have never felt so lucky to be surrounded by so many good, gorgeous, kind, talented people, and truly believe Kate had this little worldly pull to all the best people!

We have no amount of thanks or gratitude for Kate that will ever feel like it's enough - she just takes on so much that is so over and above the job but it doesn't go unnoticed and makes such a difference on the day and in the lead up. She has such a genuine love of what she does and her expertise was so evident and welcome for us from her being with us on our menu tasting to helping design our table scape- she's SO much more than she would ever give herself credit for! Nothing ever feels like too much. She takes it all in her stride, and the magic just follows her. She asks all of the questions before you even know it's something you need to think about, and her passion for the couples she works with is always so evident."

DESTINATIONS

A photograph of a couple walking away from the camera down a dirt path in an olive grove. The sun is low in the sky, creating a bright lens flare on the left side. The couple is in the center of the frame, with the man in a dark suit and the woman in a light-colored dress. The trees are large and leafy, casting shadows on the ground. In the upper right corner, there are three white wavy lines.

'Kate was amazing at knowing exactly our style and personalities and found vendors who would match us both in terms of what we wanted, but also would mesh with us as a couple. We had the most incredible wedding day(s) and absolutely no way could have pulled this together without Kate. She is worth her weight in gold!'

THE DESTINATION WEDDING CO. A LITTLE MORE INTIMATELY

The Destination Wedding Co is the work of Kate Kennedy.

I collaborate with romantic couples, inspired by their lives & loves, to create relaxed weddings in naturally beautiful destinations in Europe.

I love nothing more than the prospect of the next adventure. You'll find me with my head in a book, baking or snuggled by the log burner. My career began with corporate hospitality in the sporting events industry, the Olympics 2012 being the pinnacle! I moved organically into management of the most iconic events venues, including the OXO Tower & The Royal Liver Building. These distinctive locations attracted exceptional couples, searching for a unique way to celebrate their wedding.

Planning our own destination wedding in Slovenia in 2015, wasn't so straightforward. I knew there was a better way for couples to escape with ease.

My inspiration lies within natural landscapes, sunlight streaming through the trees, laughter filled dinners with friends & my couple's stories.

NOW WHAT? THE NEXT STEPS

It's a lot to absorb. It's a very personal undertaking & that doesn't come lightly. Think about your priorities & be realistic about your time.

If this is the kind of support you need, brilliant!

Book a consultation & I'll await to hear more about your ideas & thoughts. I will then send you a tailor-made proposal which includes the contract. If you're in agreement, I'll send a link for you to e-sign the contract along with the deposit information.

Any questions before signing on the dotted line, just ask!

Upon returning the contract & deposit you're booked & once we confirm your date, it's in our diary. We will then meet to put our plans into action.

We can't wait to help at such an exciting time in life, let's enjoy it & make landing on the moon a walk in the park!
